Overall objectives of the Kampala initiative

- To establish a democratic civil society space and structure (alliance, community) of independent, critical-thinking activists and organizations across Southern and Northern boundaries.

- Within this space (alliance, community), the critique of aid leads to formulating, promoting, disseminating and seeking political traction for a new, broadly shared civil society narrative on cooperation and solidarity within and beyond aid.

- To identify a set of sub-topics/themes and related critical, concrete and catalytic cases (entry points for interventions within the aid paradigm or for advancing solidarity and cooperation beyond aid).

• Series of four webinars, 29 October to 8 November 2019
• Kampala workshop on “How to advance cooperation and solidarity within and beyond aid?”, 14-15 November 2019
• Followed by review and planning session

GLOBAL PUBLIC INVESTMENT

Five paradigm shifts for a new era of aid

Reference: Executive summary of the “Global Public Investment” paper (2019)
PPT slides will be shared if/once available
A CIVIL SOCIETY LOOK AT THE PROPOSAL

“The proposal could be a really strong one (and very similar to things we have advocated for ourselves) but a few issues undermine its message:

1. Missing context
2. Investment narrative
3. Legitimacy”

We will soon ask all participants to share assessments of the proposed five paradigm shifts for the future of concessional international public finance. Raise your hand if you want to speak.

MODERATOR: THOMAS SCHWARZ, MMI NETWORK

DISCUSSION

1. Your assessment of the “Global Public Investment” proposal of five paradigm shifts for the future of concessional international public finance (content, concept, actors, interests, etc.)

2. How do deal with this proposal from a civil society perspective? (deepen the assessment/debate, engage, challenge, reject, etc.)

+/- 30 Minutes
Avoid “Questions and Answers”. Raise your hand to speak. You will be called and unmuted.

Slides still available as reference.

A FEW (MORE) QUESTIONS TO JONATHAN

• Any first reactions to what you have heard.
• Is the content of your analysis and proposals (five paradigm shifts for the future of concessional international public finance) carved in stone or open for further debate?
• When and how do you plan to move from the “proposal” or “call” to a proper plan, initiative or campaign?
• How/when do you intend to get civil society on board?
CONCLUSIONS

Positioning the case in the overall themes of the Kampala Initiative:

§ Is aid stabilizing an unfair global trade regime? Or how to avoid this?
§ Aid and its actors distorting or supporting national health policies, systems, processes?
§ Representation and voice(s) of civil society in global fora and processes?
§ How to achieve global solidarity within and beyond aid?
